OPERATION AND EFFECTS OF THE GENERALIZED SYSTEM OF PREFERENCES

Scheme of the European Economic Community: 1990

Note by the UNCTAD secretariat

1. The present document contains information from published sources on the operation of the scheme of the EEC in 1990. 1/ It relates to the application of fixed duty-free amount (FDFA), Community ceilings and/or quotas for individual beneficiaries. Subsequent information will be published as it becomes available.

2. During 1990, 54 products were affected by individual tariff ceilings, consisting mostly of chemical and petrochemical products, leather products, footwear, household articles of earthenware, glassware of a kind used for tables, copper bars, prepared unrecorded media for sound recording, reception apparatus for radio-telephony, television receivers colour, mounted piezo-electric crystals, other toys, 2/ textiles and clothing. 3/ Furthermore, a total of 115 sensitive products were affected by tariff quotas FDFA and/or fixed reduced duty amount (FRDA). It should be noted that 30 of these sensitive products were also affected by the tariff ceiling mentioned above. Sensitive products affected were: preserved pineapples, unmanufactured tobacco, chemical and petrochemical products, trunks, suitcases, protective for all trades of leather tanned and dressed furskins, fibreboard, tableware of porcelaine, semi-finished products of iron or non-alloy steel, tubes and pipes of iron or steel, screws, bolts, nuts of iron or steel, aluminium bars, pliers and similar tools, handtools, padlocks and locks, air vacuum pumps, sewing machines, reception apparatus for radio, television colour, electrical capacitors, electric filament lamps, thermonic valves, diodes, motor vehicles, clocks, parts of glass articles for electrical lighting, festive articles, brushes, textile products. 4/

3. In addition three non-sensitive products were also affected by limitations (i.e. zinc oxide, palmitic acid and other organic compounds). 5/

4. With two exceptions, 6/ all the above-mentioned products, for the remainder of the year, had normal MFN rates re-established for imports from all beneficiaries (in the case of three products) and from single countries concerned. It should be noted that in the case of certain products considered as highly sensitive for which tariff quotas or FDFA were set-up for half year, the MFN rates were re-established for the corresponding remaining half year.

5. The limitations were applied as follows: all beneficiaries (3 products); China (89 products); Thailand (34 products), Hungary and Pakistan (29 products each), Poland (28 products), Brazil and India (26 products each), Indonesia (24 products), Hong Kong (16 products), Malaysia (11 products), Philippines (8 products), Mexico (7 products), Argentina and Romania (5 products each), Macao and Singapore (4 products each), Peru (3 products), Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Saudi Arabia and Venezuela (1 product each).

6. Various Official Journals of the European Communities, series C of 1990, provided information on preferential trade which reached tariff ceilings vis-à-vis specific beneficiaries but information on whether or not MFN rates were re-established was not provided. This was the case of 59 industrial products affecting 23 beneficiaries and 90 textile products affecting 22 beneficiaries. 7/

7. Further details of imports which reached quotas/ceilings or FDFA in 1990 can be found in the attached tables.

2/ See annex B I.

3/ See annex C I.

4/ See annex A, B I, and C I.

5/ See annex B I.

6/ In the case of MFA textile products falling under categories 28 and 97, MFN rates were re-established from 1 January 1991.

7/ See annex B II (industrial products) C II (i) MFA textile products and C II (ii) non-MFA products.

a/ For more detailed information see Official Journal of the European Communities No. L 383 of 30 December 1989 which includes the EEC GSP scheme for 1990.

b/ The description of goods in column (2) under (A), B (I) and C (II) is not always detailed at the tariff level corresponding to the Common Tariff. In such cases (e.g. ex 2008) tariff lines in column (5) are given according to the Common Tariff, when tariff lines are numerous, only the lowest and highest tariff rates are given. For more detailed information see Official Journal of the European Communities No. L 282 of 2 October 1989 which includes the EEC common tariff.

c/ FDFA: Fixed duty-free amount; TC: Tariff ceiling; N/S = non-sensitive.

d/ ADS/Z = additional duty on sugar.

e/ Tariff quotas or FDFA for these products were established for half-year periods. Consequently, MFN rates were re-established twice a year vis-à-vis certain affected beneficiaries.
